

him will ever forget him. He is sadly missed and that smile of his will never be forgotten." Schuyler's mom Colleen also talked about his incredibly warm smile that will be forever in her mind.

A fellow soldier wrote, "I was proud to have served with [Patch] in Afghanistan in 2006–2007. He was a good guy and liked to make the best of the situation."

A friend wrote, "We will all miss him and we all love him very much. He was the kind of guy who could cheer you up on your worst day and the most outgoing person I'll ever know. Thank you Schuyler for all the great memories we had and thank you so much for serving to protect all of us. I love you."

Captain Jon Prain, a National Guard chaplain who spoke at his funeral, summed up Schuyler's life well when he said, "He heard freedom's call. He paid freedom's price, so that we all might enjoy the benefits of freedom . . . He was, and always shall be, an American soldier."

Schuyler lived a life of love for his family, friends, and country. He will be remembered by many for his contagious smile and warm, affectionate personality. I am honored to pay tribute to this true American hero who volunteered to go into the fight and gave the ultimate sacrifice by giving up his life for our freedom.
